

as several speeches made against such a course were received in a manner that left no doubt as to the outcome.

If there was a man present who wanted to go to work he did not make himself known. After some talk, a committee on resolutions was appointed, and while the rest of the men were denouncing the actions of Chairman Jones and his supporters in meeting assembled, the following was received with a wild whoop:

"We, the employees of the mechanical departments and day laborers of the Carnegie Steel Works of Homestead, in meeting assembled, do offer the following as our views in regard to the labor trouble existing at present:

"We are in sympathy with the Amalgamated Association, and pledge ourselves to stand by them to the end. We consider it an injustice to the mechanical departments and day laborers and an insult to their intellect to ask them to work under guard, as we believe that in this land of the free all men should be free."

This deliverance went through with a cheer that almost made the smokestacks at the steel works tremble. Then a committee was appointed to present them to General Manager Potter as the ultimatum of the men.

For this reason they will be given aid from the Association. Their action will be at least delayed in meeting assembled at the Carnegie Steel Works.

military occupation of Homestead is the National Guard. Gen. Snowden makes mention of this when he considers that the $75,000 appropriation which would have gone to pay the expenses of the annual camp duty now be devoted to the purchase of much needed equipment, the county of Allegheny having settled the bill for the Homestead camp. And Allegheny is still smarting under the bonded debt incurred in its similar experience of the 1877 railway strike.

AFTER ENGLISH STEEL WORKERS.

Belief that Two Carnegie Foremen Have Gone to Sheffield.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 18.—The operators here believe that there is some foundation for the rumor that men are coming from England to work in the Homestead Steel Works.

They point out that two brothers named McConnell, who worked as foremen in the mill and came from England, have disappeared. They have not been seen for three weeks. Many of the peaceful men, however, the brothers have gone into the steel manufacturing district around Sheffield for the purpose of inducing skilled workmen to come and work in the Homestead mill.

A foreman ridiculed the report, and said that plenty of men could be secured in the United States, who would be willing to work in the country. This foreman said that part of the work would assuredly be in operation by this afternoon, but he declined to state where the men were to come from.

SHOWING MORE TENSION.

Soldiers Jeered and They in Turn Give Orders Harshly.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 18.—There was a very interesting alarm given the Thirteenth Regiment early this morning when on its tour of duty as provost guard. Shortly after 2:30 o'clock a crowd of men gathered on the tracks near the mill and soon a body of soldiers came to the mill and were disposed to come up to the soldiers. The company was at once called out and word sent to the relief, which at once put the whole regiment under arms when the crowd of strikers disappeared in the gloom and everybody began to find out what was all about. No one has yet suggested that the soldiers were to be shot.

Jeering remarks as the soldiers march by are common today, and the sentries and guards, on the other hand, give their orders harshly and abruptly, and the situation can be very fairly described as showing more tension.

The military while not expecting, are making various preparations for trouble. A large additional amount of ammunition has been ordered from the Frankford Arsenal, and boxes containing 1,000 rounds are piled all around the inside of the school-house where Gen. Snowden has his headquarters. There are about 25,000 rounds of ball cartridges here, and at least 50,000 more rounds are expected.

The Fourth Regiment, Col. Case, 450 strong, was brought over the river into Homestead this morning and given the duty of provost guard. This morning 400 men on duty on this side today, and it is understood that the other of the north bank regiments will be brought over by day until the mills have opened for work.

QUIET AT THE UNION MILLS, TOO.

The Firm to Push the Prosecution of the Pinkerton Slayers.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 18.—There was no change in the situation at the Upper and Lower Union Mills today. The factory, forge and mechanical departments were still in operation and the yardmen were at work, but everything else about the big plants was quiet.

Probably 800 to 1,000 of the 2,000 men employed in these mills were on duty. None of the men who quit last week, however, responded this morning to the company's invitation to return to work.

Secretary Loeper of the Carnegie Company, said today that more men were applying for work than were needed at this time. He refused, however, to talk about the number of men in the mill.

Referring to the men killed in the Homestead battle he said it was the intention of the firm to prosecute as necessary to murder all persons on the company's property at the time of the killing of the Pinkerton men.

The cases are now in the hands of the company's lawyers, he said, and would be pushed to the end.

But it does not necessarily follow that Champion British Monarch, the best dog in England, has had its day, although this splendid beauty, which has won the club's fifty-guinea challenge cup eleven times, only secured the third prize.

PASSED BAD SILVER DOLLARS.

Two Young Counterfeiters Caught in the Act.

Locked Up for Examination by Commissioner Shields.

Two papers of counterfeit money, caught in the act, were today locked up by order of United States Commissioner Shields.

For several weeks counterfeit money has been passing in the lower part of Third avenue. The counterfeiters have been caught in the act, and the money has been locked up by order of Commissioner Shields.

The prisoners were in company when first seen by the detectives, and had just come out of the store of Charles Peterson, 280 Third avenue. They walked down the avenue and the detectives went into the store and found that they had passed five cents, worth of counterfeit money, giving a counterfeit dollar in payment.

The officers followed the pair down to the station of Thomas Gilman, at 197 Third avenue. Here one of the men went into the station, while the other remained outside.

The detective pointed upon the watchman outside. He was turned over to the custody of Police Detective Metcalf, who was in the street police station, who was in the street police station, who was in the street police station.

Hunter and Wade went into the station when the officer whom they had been following had just finished drinking a glass of beer and threw down a silver dollar. Hunter grabbed the coin and found it to be a counterfeit.

This follow was placed under arrest. In the mean time the companion outside had been taken into custody by the police. The two men were taken to the station and held for examination.

The prisoners were taken to Police Headquarters, where they gave their names as James McCarthy and John Nolan. McCarthy's real name is said to be Lamb, and he lives at 424 East Eighth street. Nolan's real name is Nolan, and he lives at 213 East Eighth street.

When arrested, both men were carrying a large number of counterfeit dollars. They were found in the possession of the prisoners.

This morning they were brought down to the Federal building by the two detectives and arraigned before United States Commissioner Shields, who committed them to the city jail in default of $2,500 bail each for examination at 10 o'clock Wednesday next.

Already Nearly Two-thirds of the $160 Needed Has Been Subscribed.

The fund created by The Evening World to purchase artificial legs for Mrs. Anna Dressler, the unfortunate woman who is soon to suffer the loss of her natural limbs through a surgical operation at Bellevue Hospital, has doubled itself since Saturday.

Edward Miller, 1011 Avenue A—Any one who thinks evening concerts are not popular at this time should have seen the crowd here last Thursday night. Fewer on Thursday night, but as soon as the concert was over everybody went home, showing that it was the music that had called them out.

Albert Nielsen, 1648 East Avenue—The majority of the people who attended Thursday night's concert were workingmen, with their wives and families. I didn't see a drunken man around, nor did I hear a cross word spoken. The "experiment" was a grand success and should be continued permanently.

MR. HALL'S LETTER.

Objection to Evening Concerts in East River Park Withdrawn.

Citizens' Comments on the Success of the "Experimental" Concert.

The People Demand that the Park Board Shall Grant Their Request.

In proof of the statement so prominently made in these columns that "Handmaster Henry A. Hall of East River Park was willing to play evening at East River Park, the Evening World today publishes this explanatory letter from Mr. Hall to the Park Board.

Hall of East River Park, 1111 Avenue A, New York, July 16, 1892.

Dear Sir: After the demonstration of the success of the "Experimental" concert, held on Thursday evening, I most respectfully withdraw all objection I had to playing in East River Park in the evening from 8 to 10 P. M.

It is the desire of the people, and although it may inconvenience me, I willingly submit to their demands. Resolving that you will inform the Park Board of my willingness to perform every Thursday from 8 to 10 o'clock P. M., I remain yours respectfully,

H. A. HALL.

Handmaster of the Park Board. This definitely and officially removes the last objection alleged by the Park Board to a permanent change in the hour of the regular Thursday concert at East River Park from 4 o'clock in the afternoon to 8 o'clock in the evening, and frequents of that pleasure will report and confidently hope that the Park Commissioners will rescind their hasty action of last week and immediately order weekly evening concerts at the park for the rest of the season.

Residents in the neighborhood of the park are not getting talking of Thursday night "experimental" concert. Yesterday being a holiday, the park was thronged with vacationers and their families, many of whom enjoyed their first concert there Thursday night last, and are unanimous in their demands that the evening concert be permanently continued.

These are some of the opinions expressed by them to an Evening World reporter. Jacob Green, 1022 East End avenue—Had we known what a pleasing evening concert we should have petitioned the Park Board for them when The Evening World correspondent said a woman has died of a suspicious disease in Trieste, and that the doctors are unable to decide whether it was Asiatic cholera or a mild form of the disease that killed her.

Several cases resembling cholera have occurred in a mountainous village near the Serbian frontier. The Russian War Minister has sent instructions to the commanders of Russian garrisons to the effect that in the event of rioting similar to that at Astrakhan the troops must intervene without delay, and must use ball cartridges against the rioters.

Mr. Clarkson on Republican Harmony in New York.

Republican National Chairman Carter was Mr. Clarkson's guest at Long Branch yesterday, and it is said the two ex-chairmen gave his successor some valuable pointers and some inside information about New York politics.

Mr. Clarkson is said to have advised Mr. Carter that it is understood that he seeks authority that it be really desired a peace and harmony and the cooperation of the Republicans in this state he would have to prevent the intermeddling of Secretaries Tracy, Elihu and Foster in local affairs.

Neither ex-chairman that Mr. Carter will have anything to do with that, and any attempt on their part to interfere in matters political, here with Mr. Carter was given to understand, only when the local business of the party is concerned.

Mr. Carter is greatly impressed by the wisdom of Mr. Clarkson's policy, and he is expected to go to Washington immediately after the meeting of the Executive Committee of the party, which will be held at the New York Hotel on Tuesday.

The new Chairman, who is nothing if not diplomatic, will probably undertake to bring the party about after he has taken with the President.

ANOTHER BISMARCK INTERVIEW.

For William I. the Ex-Chancellor Would Even Have Been Valet.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
BERLIN, July 18.—An article is published in which Count Adolf Westarp recounts an interview he recently had with Prince Bismarck at Friedrichsruh. Referring to the meeting of the Emperor and Emperor William at Kiel, Prince Bismarck said he was always just when such untoward incidents were concerned.

Referring to his own dismissal, he remarked: "When the Kaiser ascended the throne one of my colleagues, who hoped to become my successor, said: 'Your Majesty, if Frederick the Great had found on his accession a Minister of the greatest of Bismarck and had kept him in office, he would never have acquired the life of a great man.'"

"I do not yet know what was the final and immediate cause of my dismissal."

"A misfortune of my time is the fact of building Ministers not being in the right place. Each, you might say, would have been an excellent Minister of War, since the army has confidence in him."

Referring to Emperor William I, Prince Bismarck, in a voice choking with emotion, said: "It was a pleasure to serve him, yet he had a high ideal of his position and his nobility of character. I am I would have done anything—even become his valet."

TO SETTLE THE IRISH QUESTION.

Sir Edward Watkin Would Canal and Tunnel Ireland.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LONDON, July 18.—The Times today gives prominence to a letter from Sir Edward Watkin, Liberal Unionist, member of the House of Commons for Hythe and Chairman of the Southern Railway Company, urging a settlement of the Irish question by a compromise between Mr. Gladstone and Lord Salisbury and by the construction of a ship canal across Ireland and a tunnel connecting Ireland and Scotland.

The construction of a ship canal, Sir Edward says, would place Ireland on the shortest sea route to all the great West and to the East by way of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Surveys, he adds, have shown that the project is feasible, and that the cost would not exceed £20,000,000.

Sir Edward says the tunnel would restore the ship canal and the tunnel would restore the ship canal and the tunnel would restore the ship canal and the tunnel would restore the ship canal.
